A treasure hunt on your doorstep – History goes English

Interactive tour

Standing on its rock for almost 800 years, the impressive castle in Frauenfeld has witnessed a wide range of changing times. Many people came, stayed and left. If these old walls could talk – what would they tell and what secrets do they still hide? The castle is also the home of medieval treasures to be discovered. Let's go for a treasure hunt to reveal some of the mysteries and to learn more about the history that happened right on our doorstep. In reference to units 1/11/14 in Open World – why not get some English practice in the vicinity?
